

Ahead of the Game

SUSTAINABILITY REPORT 2020

As the world's leading gaming company, IGT is committed to responsible and sustainable practices that help our customers and communities stay ahead of the game. IGT remained resilient in 2020, despite challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic, and helped customers adapt to a changing market.

We continue to fulfill our promise to customers by delivering unrivaled gaming experiences that engage players and drive growth. Our commitment to employee well-being, high standards of integrity and ethical conduct, diversity and inclusion, and professional development are continually improving our company from within.

Our ongoing pledge to sustainably grows within the gaming industry is centered on four key priorities:

Valuing and Protecting our People

IGT emphasizes responsible and sustainable practices in all of our business operations. We prioritize the health and well-being of our employees around the world.

Diversity and Inclusion efforts are an important and expanding element of our corporate culture. Through talent development and employee engagement, employees have the opportunity to share their input, insight and concerns to help shape and advance the IGT culture.

Advancing Responsibility

IGT's commitment to advancing responsibility exemplifies the collective effort of many, and the Company's dedication to integrity, ethics, and responsibility.

A solid infrastructure of policies, guidelines, and best practices ensure that IGT solutions uphold industry standards.

Our responsible approach lends itself to earning and maintaining the trust of our stakeholders.

Supporting our Communities

IGT supports the community through corporate and employee-driven programs. Corporate programs align with IGT's selected SDGs as part of a community giving strategy. This includes our flagship After School Advantage Program.

Employee-driven programs encourage IGT employees to pursue their own community passions.

Fostering Sustainable Operations

IGT's sustainability practices are supported by strong relationships with suppliers and customers.

This helps to ensure outstanding customer service, quality goods and services, and excellence in a highly regulated and controlled industry.

IGT strives to continually improve its environmental management systems and reduce its impact on the environment. It's all part of our respect for our people and our planet.

We continue to look ahead, connecting players around the world with best-in-class solutions that respect both people and the environment, while delivering excellence to keep gaming fun and safe for all.
